CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Eighteen converts of the revival at the Christian church at Greenup had their sins washed away in the Ohio river Sunday.

—The Presbyterian Home Mission meeting at New York, over which President Cleveland presided, raised $9,058 for the work.

—Rev. A. J. Ramsey, who has for 41 years been pastor of the Baptist church in Paris, has resigned to accept a church at Nashville.

—Rev. T. J. McIntyre died in Shelby county, where he had a circuit, aged 59. He was once presiding elder of the Middleboro district.

—On March 21st the pope will be 86 years old. He has been priest 58 years, bishop 32 years, archbishop 50 years, and supreme pontiff 17 years.

—The Baltimore conference of the Methodist Church South, will hold its 112th annual session at Roanoke, Va. Bishop Hargrove will preside.

—Eld Wm. Meyers' revival at the Christian church, Greenup, has resulted in 56 additions to last accounts. At one time there was a grandfather, father and son of the same family at the altar.

—Pastor Roseburg, of Central City, W. Va., who was fined for taking a drink of whisky while in a funeral procession, has brought suit against the town for $10,000. He said he took the drink for health's sake.

—Judge Scott was waited on by the preachers at Nicholasville and asked to adjourn court every day at 11, so that everybody could go to church, but the judge is an honest man, and didn't want to draw pay and not work, so he declined the request.

—Rev. George P. Taubman devoted his Sunday morning sermon to the action of the city authorities in reducing the liquor license from $100 to $75 and scored it into men who seek popularity with a certain class by forming a partnership with the devil.

—The Rev. Culpepper, who is holding a meeting at Nicholasville, is said to be even plainer spoken than Sam Jones, the man he imitates. In one of his discourses the other day, he referred to the mixing of the races in Kentucky in this way: "It is a very common thing for a white man to see a pocket edition of himself walking along the streets in con skin binding."

—The Christian church at Georgetown didn't like the way Pastor L. H. Stine did and said things and demanded his resignation. Last Sunday, says the Times, by previous announcement in handbills, he preached a scorching and closed by saying "the congregation was unworthy of him and his wife. What the congregation needed was a wooden preacher with a speaking apparatus inside, moved by an electrical current, and let the elders press the button." All hope of an adjustment of differences is past and the pastor will have to go. The trouble seems to have originated in the local option election.

LAW MAKING AT FRANKFORT.

—Two democrats have died since the legislature began to sit, but the republicans are true to the claim that they never die nor resign.

—A lunatic escaped from the asylum at Lexington and went to gathering eggs for Gov. Bradley, presumably for him to throw at the legislature.

—The charge against Dr. James is riding on a railroad pass and that against Dr. Walton of holding an office incompatible with that of Senator.

—Gov. Bradley has appointed Dr. B. F. Taylor, a colored physician of Louisville, to be third assistant at Leland Asylum and have charge of the colored ward.

—Brer Grider offered a resolution to pay the preachers who had been praying for the body $300. As the prayers seem to have done no good, there seems to be nothing to pay for.

—Gov. Bradley has refused to approve the account for printing 2,500 dockets for the court of appeals. He says that only 500 ought to be printed. The statute reads "shall print not less than 500."

—Bronston said he didn't want to speak to any d—n republican and Tut Burnam told him to "Go to hell." At last accounts Bronston was in the Senate, which seems next to the place he was told to go.

—The gold reserve is now $126,567,242.

—Flames licked up $140,000 worth of whisky in a distillery at Cincinnati.

—Ham Davenport, of Duganville, Mercer county, was found dead in bed.

—Four men were killed and one injured by the explosion of a locomotive at Gun Run, Pa.

—In his speech on the Cuban question, Senator Roger Q. Mills said: "I am in favor of the United States taking possession of Cuba and stopping the butchery of Cuban people. We are almost at that point now."

—Foraker, Bushnell, Grosvenor and Hanna were selected delegates-at-large to the St. Louis convention by the Ohio republican convention. Protection was landed in the platform, a sound money plank was inserted and McKinley was endorsed.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Elder George Gowen's subject will be "Stumbling Blocks" next Sunday.

—The Baptist society will meet this evening with Mrs. James Humphrey on Danville street.

—There are 10 prisoners confined in our jail awaiting trial. Eight of the 10 are accused of larceny.

—J. M. Todd, a prominent farmer of this county, was fined $25 and costs in the police court for violating the local option laws of the town.

—Misses Margaret Porter and Nellie Young, of Louisville, are here for the purpose of writing biographical sketches of some of our more prominent citizens.

—Ernest G. Brown is the recent recipient of a most earnest proposal from some fair damsel. All the result of the late advertisement of Lancaster's "Merry Bachelors" in the Stanford I. J.

—A hop was tendered Mr. W. F. Bellman, of Cincinnati, Thursday evening at the Mason Hotel. A number of our young society people were present and enjoyed the Terpsicorean art for a number of hours.

—Sheriff T. B. Robinson went Wednesday after requisition papers from the governor for the return of Elzy Anderson, a horse thief, who has been in jail at Kokomo, Ind. He will be brought here and tried during this term of court.

—The Lancaster Cornet Band, under the able management of Mr. John E. Stormes, will have an open recital this evening at the Odd Fellows Hall. Only invited friends outside of the members of the families of the young men in the band are expected. They intend soon to begin their open air concerts in our city park.

—Miss Clyde Hoffman, Lancaster's talented violinist, has been solicited by Miss Glascock to assist in her Delsarte and Elocutionary entertainment to be given March 20th in your city, by rendering one of her most classical productions. Miss Hoffman is quite a fine performer upon the violin and Lancaster is justly proud that she can render such needed aid to Stanford by loaning her one of our best musicians.

—Mr. Silas Ashley, of this place, has brought suit against the members of the Pleasant Grove church. The grievance with Mr. Ashley is that he has failed to receive the amount promised for repairs done upon the church. In turn the church members claim that Mr. Ashley's work has not proven satisfactory and they don't feel under obligations to pay for what was promised.

—Howard Harris, a trusted and highly respected colored man of this community, died Monday in his 50th year of brain trouble. His death is thought to be the result of a blow he received upon the head some time ago. He was reared by and lived for many years in the employ of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harris, of this county, and was a faithful, industrious servant.

—To-day five of Lancaster's most fascinating young ladies will swoop down on Stanford in the hopes of capturing some of the charming young men, so brilliantly advertised by Editor Walton, as candidates in the matrimonial market. It is hard on your correspondent and the poem that showed the good qualities of the Garrard bachelors, when these bright damsels leave home for wider range and pastures new.

—Unpretentious Lancaster continually comes to the front, either from present or past distinction. The prominent St. John Boyle, nominated for the U. S. Senate, owes his lineage to Garrard county ancestors. His father was the noted Jeremiah Boyle, who married a daughter of the Hon. Simeon Anderson, for years Congressman from this district. The childhood home of Mrs. Boyle stands about a mile and a quarter North of this city, now occupied by the widow Sutton.

—Miss Addie Burnside has returned from a visit to Miss Allie Walker, of Kirksville. Charles Smith is the guest of his sister, Mrs. W. T. Brogle, of Lexington. Miss Eudoxia Moss is at home in at home from Beaumont College, at Harrodsburg. Miss Minnie Snodgrass, of Kansas, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Booth Thompson. Miss Bettie Anderson is reported better and hopes are entertained that she may recover. Miss Alice Sandler, of Lower Garrard, has been visiting Miss Minnie West. John Hackney, of Danville, was a visitor here this week. Miss Kate Walker leaves to-day to visit Mrs. W. G. Dunlap, of Lexington. Miss Mollie Douglass is visiting friends in Danville. Mrs. Colson, of Middleboro, is visiting Mrs. W. B. Moss, who has been quite ill but reported better. J. M. Frazier, of Lexington, was a sojourner in our city this week. Mrs. E. W. Walker and Mrs. S. L. Gibbs have returned from Louisville. W. T. Brown, of Lexington, has joined his wife here, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson. J. J. Douglass is ill again of rheumatism.

—The Lancaster "Quintette Clique" are to be the members of a house party given by your gay and nonchalant young townsman, Mr. Jack Runt. The young ladies are Miss Pattie Beasley so winning in her sweet simplicity; Miss Ada Farra so attractive in her frank geniality; Miss Maude Robinson so dainty in her petite winsomeness; and the Misses Burnside so charming in their rare beauty form—a group to which all Stanford should show homage.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Dr. and Mrs. O. P. Herndon, of Barbourville, passed the 50th anniversary of their wedding March 2.

—Charley Adams, aged 19, and Miss Maggie Nailor, 21, were married at Mr. John Nailor's Wednesday.

—Charles Daugherty and Miss Ellen Daugherty were joined heart and hand at Mr. A. J. Daugherty's yesterday.

—Pryor Adams and Miss Malinda Smith, both of McKinney, were married at the court-house Wednesday by Judge Davison.

—Charles W. Jenkins, a prominent farmer, of Madison, and Miss Mollie West, of Garrard county, were married at the bride's home.

—Mrs. Judge H. H. Tye, of Williamsburg, denies that she and her husband have separated. Perhaps the story grew out of the old gag about having a few words and parting.

—Mrs. Z. T. Young, Jr., aged 17, shot herself at Morehead Monday night with suicidal intent. She and her husband had separated a week before. There are no chances for her recovery.

—Miss Anna Williams, of Philadelphia, whose profile is said to adorn the dollar of the daddies, is to be married in a short time. She is fair, fat and forty now, but still a pretty good looking woman.

—Mrs. Emma J. Parker, wife of Dr. Larkin Parker, committed suicide by shooting herself through the head with a pistol while standing in front of a mirror at her home in Christian county. No cause is assigned. She had only been married a year.

—Olive Smith did the lightning change act matrimonially at Kokomo, Ind., Tuesday and now holds the record as an artist in that line. At 2:35 she went into court and obtained a divorce from Francis M. Trader; then she repaired to the clerk's office and secured a license to marry Joseph N. Tyler, and before the ink was dry on either the divorce or license, 'Squire Loop was pronouncing the ceremony that made her Mrs. Tyler. In the divorce her maiden name of Smith was restored, giving her the three names in three minutes.

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

—Bob Jackson, a negro boy, struck a white boy named Gentry on the head with a fence slab near Richmond, and the injuries are considered fatal.

—Mrs. R. L. Spalding and daughter, Flora, were frightfully burned in Marion county, as the result of the clothing of the latter catching fire and her mother's efforts to subdue the flames.

—Chief of Police Helm arrested Michael Furstell at Danville charged with grand larceny committed in Washington county. The fellow entered a convent down there to become a monk, but changed his mind and became a thief.

—A fellow with nothing better to do took a poll of the republican court visitors to London Monday and found 203 for McKinley, 5 for Reed and Allison 1. A number of them said if Gov. Bradley was a candidate for the nomination they would be for him first, because of State pride.

—The following are candidates for delegate to the republican National convention from the Eighth district: John W. Yerkes, Danville; J. W. Caperton, Richmond; E. W. Drollin, Lawrenceburg; T. M. Cardwell, Harrodsburg; E. T. Burnam, Richmond; W. M. Harrison, Shelbyville. Yerkes and Caperton will likely be chosen. Certainly they will merit and ability go for anything in the G. O. P.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Mr. Gus Hofmann is in Lexington on business. Mrs. Kitty King will go to Louisville Monday to take items in the latest Millinery and to buy her stock in this line.

—The Masonic supper here Saturday night was a success and quite a nice amount of money was realized, which was promptly sent to the Orphans' Home, one of the noblest institutions of the order.

—Mrs. Brooks and Miss Mollie returned from Harrodsburg Saturday, bringing Lord Ladys with them, to the regret of his many Harrodsburg admirers. Dr. R. G. Radd, of Miles City, Montana, who was called home on account of the serious illness of his father, arrived Tuesday. Mr. Radd, Sr., is reported much better, but not yet out of danger. Mr. W. H. King, who has been failing in health for the last year, is now confined to his room and it is quite a pleasure to him for his friends to call. Mrs. Alice Newland goes to Cincinnati Friday to visit relatives on Walnut Hill. Her place at the depot will be filled by Joe. Miss Sallie McWhorter has quite a flourishing school at the Holmes school house. Madam Rumor says wedding bells will ring in Crab Orchard in the Spring. Dr. Wm. Dickinson is up from Stanford on professional business. Mrs. Malinda Ross is on the sick list.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Mr. C. C. VanArsdale, of the Roller Mills, is putting in a new engine and other new machinery.

—Mr. B. F. McKinley, of Moreland, is working on a bicycle which he contemplates running with a miniature hot air engine.

—Dinwiddie Bros., George and Billie, are doing a big business since they moved. They will add a large line of hardware soon.

—Mr. William Williams has gotten a sufficient number of old soldiers to sign a petition to effect the organization of a Grand Army Post here.

—Miss Amanda Bishop, the accomplished daughter of Mr. Josiah Bishop, has secured the Spring school at Kingsville and will begin Monday next.

—Mrs. Jesse Huston, who lives within a mile of town, has been to Hustonville only twice during the last nine years, so a person who is in position to know tells us.

—Jim Goode, who has been in bad health since he attended the G. A. R. at Louisville, is now confined to his bed. Even his doctors are at loss to know what his trouble is.

—We can boast of having two of the best and cheapest hotels in the State. For $1 a day the hungry will be fed on the best in the land and furnished a bed which is a veritable one of ease.

—W. R. Williams asks us to state that the letting of the contracts for poles and putting up the telephone wires will be at Liberty Monday, 23, county court day. G. A. Prescott, of Liberty, will furnish specifications.

—J. P. Harper took a car load of hogs to Cincinnati Thursday. Most of them were bought in this county at 3¢ to 3½¢. John Dinwiddie sold to D. C. Allen a bunch of shoats at 3½¢. W. C. Greening bought of M. E. Allen a pair of mules for $100.

—James Hughes, of McKinney, died Monday after a few days illness of pneumonia. He was 32 years old and leaves a wife and one child. Mr. H. was a splendid citizen and had been a member of the Christian church for nearly 20 years.

—Mrs. J. W. Hocker is very ill with what her doctors think is grippe. She has been in poor health for a month or more. Bessie Frye, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Frye, is very sick with catarrhal fever. Rev. W. L. Williams continues in feeble health.

—Carl Wheeler has returned to Louisville to continue his studies at the Hospital College of Medicine. H. B. Hocker and Tilden Cook, of Danville, were up this week. Miss Minnie Dinwiddie went to Louisville Tuesday. James W. Allen is funning with the funny tribe in Casey.

—The meeting at the Presbyterian church is creating much interest and great good is being done. Rev. Martin Luther, an earnest, forcible speaker, is assisting Rev. W. W. Bruce and large crowds greet them at both the morning and evening services. The singing, under the leadership of Mr. Charles Wheeler, is an enjoyable feature. There have been 20-odd confessions to date.

KINGSVILLE.

—We who have our garden fairly under headway feel just a little disappointed this morning to see "the beautiful" so fast covering the ground.

—The elite of Kingsville have organized a social literary club. They held their first meeting at Mrs. J. M. McCarty's Wednesday evening and it proved quite an interesting event. Especially was Miss Annie McKee's essay on Temperance and the music rendered by Miss Johnson enjoyed.

—Miss Bettie Creighton is visiting friends in Stanford. Mrs. James Roy, who has been quite ill for the past week, is improving. Mrs. Boone Flint, we are glad to say, is recovering from her recent illness. Mrs. Bessie McFarland, we note with gladness, is recovering from a long and serious illness. Mrs. Fannie Carey has returned from a visit to Winchester.

—Mrs. Sopha Martin, who has been in Cincinnati for two weeks buying a stock of millinery goods, spent a few days here on her return to Williamsburg. Mr. Joe C. Brooks, the popular young "knight of the grip," drove over from Stanford Monday to "press" an important suit pending in the Kingsville "court."

—Speaking of stinginess and the man who declines to give because he wants to save something for the old woman, Sam Jones says: "I knew a man of this kind well, and he hadn't been dead and in hell three years before another one came along, married the widow and sat on the front porch taking life easy. I have told my wife that when I died she had my consent to marry again, but for heaven's sake to keep the old devil off the front porch."

—A farmer near Fort Valley, Ga., in removing a rock that was in the way of his plow unearthed $18,000 in gold and silver and a quantity of greenbacks, the latter in such condition as to be worthless.
